

Viennese Contributions to Korean Studies

Wiener Beiträge
zur
Koreaforschung

Koreanologie • Institut für Ostasienwissenschaften
Universität Wien
(Hrsg.)

VII

2015

Special issue on “Korea in Eastern Europe – Perceptions and Cultural Connections”

- Ji Sun Kim An “Eastern European” Perspective on a Contemporary Conflict: Music as Cultural Diplomacy between North and South Korea in the Class of Professor Uroš Lajovic
- Jong-Chol An Making a State Known Internationally: Charles Pergler’s Activities for the Czechoslovak Republic during and after World War I
- Gregor Konzack The Visegrad Group and South Korea
- Pawel Kida & Thomas Wierzbowski How European Bison met Asian Tiger – the History and Current Status of Polish-Korean Relations
- Valentina Marinescu Searching for Sameness and Otherness through Hallyu in the Balkans and Central Europe
- Alexander Fedetoff A Bulgarian View of the Republic of Korea
- Eunsuk Cho & Oktay Gökhan Banbal The Korean Image in Turkey

www.praesens.at

issn 1998-989X

isbn 978-3-7069-0874-0